

CV-Serena Savarese

About Me

I am a diligent and motivated computer engineering student with strong communication skills and a proactive approach. I am deeply passionate about technology, music, and innovation, considering them essential drivers of progress. Recently, I have started composing music for video games, an experience that has allowed me to combine my passion for music with my interest in technology and in the gaming industry. My passion for developing future technological solutions propels my focus on efficiency and innovation. I am committed to continuous learning and growth, actively seeking external training opportunities to enhance my skill set.
